Local Government is key to keeping New Zealand going.

Local Government is of critical importance to people's lives and to the future of New Zealand. The role you play has a significant effect on the prosperity of your communities, districts, towns and the Canterbury region as a whole. ACT Party Leader and Minister of Local Government; Hon Rodney Hide has a significant programme to enhance the operation of the Local Government sector. He would be delighted if you would join him for breakfast at the Heartland Cotswold Hotel on 4 November 2009.

At this breakfast, Rodney will present his views on "The Future of Local Government in New Zealand".

The breakfast will commence at 7:15am, with Rodney Hide speaking at 7:45am. At the conclusion of the speech there will be an opportunity for guests to ask questions. The cost of the breakfast and presentation is $45 per person (including GST), this breakfast will be GST receipted. Seating for the breakfast is limited so please book early.

If you have any question please contact me and I will be happy to help

Sincerely

Toni Severin
ACT Christchurch Central
